Dear Friends in Headquarters, ASA:

Speaking for my husband I wish to report that he: was much touched and very appreciative of the extremely stunning floral arrangement which he received from you last Friday. It is still gracing his room with domignating beauty.

I am delighted to report that the Doctors now regard him as progressing satisfactorily and in the last two days he has shown marked improvement. After two or three weeks in the hospital and a month at home he hopes to return to his office.

With renewed assurances of his appreciation, I am,

Sincerely yours,

ELIZABETH SMITH FRIEDMAN
