PER<sup>[ii]</sup> has reported that a Swede who has arrived from MALMÖ points out that in naval circles there it is reported that this week the battleship TIRPITZ passed through the SOUND into the BALTIC. I found out through PER from the Director of the Swedish Tourist Bureau (who got it from someone who arrived from GERMANY) that the TIRPITZ arrived in GDYNIA on 27th April, and that the SCHLARNHORST is in the same place. Considering the fact that KIEL and TRONDHEIM are being visited by the British, a location such as this is possible, as GDYNIA has a dock and repair facilities. AKASTO<sup>[iii]</sup> and I will try to verify this.
