MEMORANDUM FOR THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, USCIB

SUBJECT: COMINT Arrangements for SACLANT

1. Reference is made to USCIB 7./4, dated 10 May 1954, subject as above.
2. The letter from the Director of Naval Intelligence, attached as an inclosure to the reference, summarizes precisely the current SACLANT situation, and reflects the views of this Agency.
3. It is recommended that USCIBEC consider the following actions:
 - a. Formally note the appointment of CDR George Noack, USN, as SACLANT "Y" Officer.
 - b. Officially designate the Navy Member of USCIB as the Board's Executive Agent for dissemination of COMINT to SACLANT.
 - c. Instruct the Executive Agent to prepare a Standing Operating Procedure, in conjunction with the Army and Air Force Members of USCIB, for provision of CANUKUS-generated COMINT to SACLANT.
 - d. Authorize the Executive Agent to seek agreement with Canadian and U.K. COMINT authorities regarding adequate mechanics of disseminating COMINT to SACLANT.
4. The Director, NSA, is prepared to arrange for the preparation and issuance of key lists and rotors to authorized holders when the necessary preliminaries are completed.

(Signed)
