USCIB DIRECTIVE NUMBER 15 (CIBD # 15 )

(Approved by USCIB on _____)

EMERGENCY AND OPERATIONAL DISSEMINATION OF COMINT

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Directive is to describe the emergency or operational conditions justifying exceptional dissemination of COMINT and to prescribe the levels at which such exceptional dissemination may be performed and action taken thereon.

II. DEFINITIONS

A. Disguised COMINT - For the purposes of this Directive, disguised COMINT is that Category III and II COMINT from which the codeword has been removed and the subject matter so worded that the information contained cannot be traced specifically to COMINT by non-indoctrinated persons (including foreign nationals).

B. Suitable Cover - For the purposes of this directive, suitable cover is the existence of substantially similar information based upon a genuine, less sensitive source or an actual situation wherein the intelligence itself can be attributed beyond reasonable doubt to other sources or events by non-indoctrinated persons (including foreign nationals).

~~TOP SECRET~~III. SCOPE

This directive is intended to apply only to situations involving Nationals of the United States of America and those countries which collaborate with the United States in COMINT activities and provides for: (a) exceptional, emergency dissemination and use of Category III and II COMINT where no suitable cover exists and where there is not sufficient time to obtain the decision of USCIB in each case in advance; (b) exceptional operational dissemination and use of certain specified Category II Plain Text where no suitable cover exists; and (c) exceptional dissemination of Category I COMINT to certain allied nationals not included in the scope of this Directive.

IV. POLICYA. Category III COMINT

1. Upon determination by proper authority, as indicated below, that a case of extreme emergency exists, in which there is an imminent threat to the vital national interests of the United States, justifying exceptional handling of individual items of Category III COMINT; such COMINT items suitably disguised, may be disseminated to non-indoctrinated persons and/or action may be taken based solely on that COMINT.

2. The lowest level of authority<sup>1</sup> permitted to determine the existence of such an emergency condition are the following<sup>2</sup>:

- a. Within the military establishment,
  - (1) Commander of an Army
  - (2) Commander of a Naval Fleet
  - (3) Commander of a Numbered Air Force
- b. Secretary of State
- c. Director, FBI
- d. Director of Central Intelligence.

3. The exceptions described in Paragraph 1 above shall be made only upon a determination that the advantages to be gained clearly justify the risk of compromise of the COMINT source and the extent of the loss which would probably follow such a compromise.

In making this determination, due regard shall be given to:

- a. The availability of suitable cover.
- b. The relative value of the particular COMINT source involved and the possibility that its compromise may lead to the loss of other COMINT sources, particularly those which are more valuable. In this regard, the COMINT support unit should

c. The possible repercussions on current and future operations and also on other commands and areas.

B. Category II COMINT

1. Upon determination by proper authority as indicated below that a case of emergency exists which involves a matter of importance to the national security of the United States (or that conditions outlined in Paragraph A. 1. above exist), justifying exceptional handling of individual items of Category II COMINT; such COMINT items, suitably disguised, may be disseminated to non-indoctrinated persons and/or action may be taken based solely on that COMINT.

C. Category II Plain Text (Government, [redacted] and Private Plain Text Passed on [redacted])

1. In non-emergency situations and upon determination by proper authority as indicated below, of a matter (subject) of sufficient importance, essential to operations directly related to the security of the United States, justifying exceptional handling of certain Category II Plain Text as specified from time to time by USCIB; such COMINT on that subject may be included in documents and operational directives not carrying a COMINT codeword and/or action may be taken based solely on that COMINT, provided there is adequate reason why the recipients should not be indoctrinated.

2. The lowest level of authority permitted to make the above decision is the USCIB member of each member department or agency.

3. The exceptions described in Paragraph 1 above shall be made only under the following conditions:

- a. All precautions must be taken to ensure that COMINT does not thereby come to the knowledge of foreign nationals not included in the scope of this Directive;

- b. The advantages to be gained are sufficiently great to justify the risk to the COMINT source;
- c. The information could reasonably be attributed by non-indoctrinated persons (including foreign nationals) to other sources-agent, attache, defector, and the like;
- d. The COMINT origin of the information is not stated. Whenever possible and plausible, the information shall be specifically attributed to other sources.

D. Category I COMINT

1. Upon determination by proper authority that a requirement exists, during active hostilities or in the case of an emergency involving a matter of importance to the national security of the United States, Category I COMINT may be disseminated to nationals of countries who are engaged directly with the United States in these hostilities or are allied directly with the United States in dealing with the emergency concerned.

3. While it is desirable to keep Category I COMINT in COMINT channels, it may be disseminated to U.S. recipients in accordance with the rules governing intelligence materials of similar classification.

4. It is recognized that the exceptional dissemination authorized above will involve loss of control by COMINT authorities, but every effort shall be made to ensure that the following provisions are enforced to the maximum extent possible:

- a. Whenever Category I COMINT is to be transmitted by a means exposed to interception, it shall normally be transmitted in an appropriate cryptographic system. It may be transmitted in plain language only when there is no suitable means of secure communication available and when there is an urgent operational need to do so. Whenever possible such plain language transmissions shall be in the form of operational orders so worded that the subject matter cannot be traced specifically to its COMINT origin.

A. or B., above, will, in each individual case, immediately furnish a report of such action, through appropriate channels to the Executive Secretary, USCIB. This report shall contain a statement of circumstances and an identification of each individual Category III COMINT item involved. When Category II COMINT is involved a general description of its extent and nature will suffice.

B. Wherever Category II Plain Text is used as permitted in Paragraph IV. C. above, an immediate report of such use shall be made to the Executive Secretary, USCIB. This report will include identification of the COMINT material used.
