CONFERENCE ON COMINT ARRANGEMENTS FOR

THE SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER, ATLANTIC (SACLANT)

FINAL REPORT

1. Representatives of the Communications Research Committee, the London Signal Intelligence Board and the United States Communications Intelligence Board met in Washington during the period 10 November 1952 to 14 November 1952, to discuss and prepare a detailed agreement regarding Communications Intelligence arrangements for the Supreme Allied Commander, Atlantic. The conference, additionally, discussed and agreed upon arrangements for the exchange and dissemination within SACLANT's Command of Communications Intelligence beyond the scope of Third Party collaboration.

2. The final papers, representing the agreements reached by the representatives of Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States, are listed below and copies are attached.

a. Basic Principles Governing COMINT Arrangements Which May Be Made With Third Parties Within the Framework of Allied Commands, including an Annexure on "COMINT Arrangements for SACLANT" with three Exhibits.

b. Arrangements for Exchange and Dissemination Within SACLANT's Command of Communications Intelligence Beyond the Scope of Third Party collaboration.

c. Communications Intelligence (Y) Arrangements for SACLANT, a shortened version of the paper described in paragraph 2a, above, to be used by SACLANT as a guide in any approach to Third Parties.

3. Also attached are copies of the Minutes of the Plenary Committee Meeting held at the opening of the Conference and a record of all the
