IN REPLY REFER TO

10 July 1952

~~SECURITY INFORMATION~~

To: Mr. W. F. Friedman, OOT

From: LCDR Greenwood, 34

Subject: Lt(jg) Billingsley, availability for assignment to SCAMP program

1. Dr. Campaigne has been desirous of integrating some of the permanent staff of mathematicians into the SCAMP program so that AFSA will benefit to the optimum
2. Lt(jg) Billingsley has been at Princeton University as a graduate student under a Navy research program. Prior to this Lt Billingsley was with a Navy predecessor group of AFSA
- 3 Lt Billingsley had asked for an additional year at Princeton in order to complete his studies, but the Navy has not approved this. Indeed, he has been ordered to AFSA for duty, and is being assigned to 34.
- 4 By copy of this letter, Dr Campaigne is being advised of this new development. There is some chance that Dr. Campaigne will want Billingsley to come to Los Angeles for participation in the SCAMP program.

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. GREENWOOD
