COMMENT NO. 1

LCDR F.T. Johnson/AG/60219/ffe

1. DA Circular 122, "Reclassification of Training Literature and Aids and T/O & E's and T/A's in Accordance with Executive Order 10501," is quoted for your information:

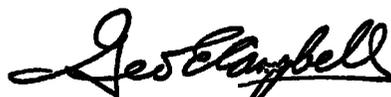

"1. Executive Order 10501, 5 November 1953, eliminates the classification of RESTRICTED Security Information, effective 15 December 1953.

"2. Pending completion of review and reclassification, Department of the Army training literature (field manuals, technical manuals, training circulars, technical bulletins, and pamphlets), manuscripts of such documents being processed for publication, training aids, and training films, presently classified RESTRICTED Security Information, will be protected in accordance with present security means for safeguarding RESTRICTED Security Information. All reviews will be completed and holders notified of necessary upgrading by 15 March 1954.

"3. a. Proponents (as defined by par. 4, SR 310-30-11 and DA Pamphlet 20-22) of T/O & E's and T/A's marked RESTRICTED will review such tables. Pending completion of such review, holders of these documents will protect them in accordance with present security measures for safeguarding RESTRICTED Security Information. Holders will be notified by Department of the Army of the proper classification.

"b. All reviews will be completed and reclassification recommendations by the proponents will be forwarded to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C., prior to 1 February 1954. In those cases where the proponent recommends upgrading of a table, sufficient reasons in support of the upgrading action will be submitted with the recommendation."

2. Such material held within this Agency will be protected as CONFIDENTIAL material until notification of the proper classification is received from Department of the Army.
