REMARKS Dr. Campaigne phoned to say that it had come to his attention that Dr. Marshall Stone was somewhat disappointed to find that he had not been asked to become a member of SCAB, although one of his men in the Department of Mathematics had been (Dr. Saunders Mac Lane). Also Campaigne said that Stone was going to have a good deal of free time this coming year and would be available whereas we had been informed or thought he was going to be much occupied with other affairs.

I suggest we talk this over with Capt Wenger soon after his return.

2. Dr. Campaigne was also very favorably impressed with Dr. Blankwell of Howard University, who was out here yesterday as consultant on a confidential-level statistical problem. Dr. C. thinks he would be a good candidate for SCAG.
