Minutes of the First Meeting of the Conference held at 1100 hours, 5 June 1953

EO 3.3(h)(2)
PL 86-36/50 USC 3605Present

Chairman: Mr. William F. Friedman

U.K. Delegates[Redacted]
Brig. John H. Tiltman

[Redacted] (Secretary)

U.S. DelegatesMr. V. P. Keay
Mr. Frank Rowlett
Mr. William H. Godel
Mr. R. F. Packard
Capt. G. Grange, USN
Col. M. L. Sherburn, USA
Lt. Col. John M. Anderson, USAF

Lt. K. B. Monypeny, Jr., USN (Secretary)

1. The Chairman proposed that at this meeting the delegates consider only the procedure of the conference and reassemble after the Chairman's luncheon at 1400. He suggested that the work of the conference continue until 1700 and that the delegates meet at 0900 on Saturday morning. It was so agreed.

2. At the request of the Chairman, [Redacted] outlined to the delegates his ideas as to the conduct of the work of the conference. He stated that the problem seemed to fall into two sections:

- a. Intelligence and security aspects.
- b. Technical and cryptologic aspects.

He proposed that two subcommittees be appointed to take under consideration each of the above. It was so agreed and the following subcommittees were appointed by the two heads of delegations:

Subcommittee 1 - To consider the intelligence, physical and personnel security aspects of the problems before the Conference.
