MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN, USCIB

SUBJECT: [] Communication Security (USCIB: 14/185, 14/189, and 14/197)

1. In the decision reached at the Seventy-Third Meeting of USCIB, held on 18 January 1952, USCIB agreed that the Ad Hoc Committee on [] Communication Security would study the plan of approach proposed by the British and formulate views regarding it. The Ad Hoc Committee met on 30 January 1952 and, after thorough discussion of the situation, unanimously recommends that:

a. No action be taken in regard to an approach to the []

b. Such approval by the French and the British Governments be followed by another round of Tripartite Security Working Group surveys, with a view to evaluating the improvements made in French internal security; and

c. The question of the revelation to the []

2. In view of the foregoing recommendations, the Ad Hoc Committee considered it premature to devote detailed attention to studying the plan of approach proposed by the British and to formulating U.S. views regarding it.
